

The Department of French & Italian Presents the Third Poetry Day Readings
welcoming

Emmanuel Laugier

French Poet - Laugier

Robert Dickson

Canadian Poet - Dickson

Tuesday, October 24, 2006

4:00 pm

French House

633 North Frances Street

Robert Dickson and Emmanuel Laugier will read selections of their poems accompanied by English translations. Both poets are major contemporary voices amongst a young generation of writers in France and in Canada. Robert Dickson (from Ontario) has published five books of poems, the most recent of which is Humains paysages en temps de paix relative ("Human Landscapes in a time of Relative Peace"). Emmanuel Laugier (from France) has published seven books of poems, the most recent being Mémoire du mat ("Chronicle of Checkmate").

This event is FREE and open to the public.

Co-sponsored by Center for European Studies at UW-Madison.