

MADISON COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS
Discussion Series – Special Joint Meeting with
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN EUROPEAN UNION CENTER

The Madison Committee on Foreign Relations, Inc., invites you to a special February meeting, for a discussion with:

Dr. Philip Gordon,
Senior Fellow in Foreign Policy Studies and Director of the Brookings Center on the United States and Europe.

Prior to coming to Brookings he was Director for European Affairs at the National Security Council; and Senior Fellow for U.S. Strategic Studies and the Editor of Survival at the International Institute for Strategic Studies in London. He has previously held teaching and research posts at the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) in Washington, DC; INSEAD, in Fontainebleau, France; and the German Society for Foreign Affairs in Bonn. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Board of the U.S. Committee on NATO, and the International Institute for Strategic Studies.

“The Future of the US-European Partnership”

Wednesday, February 9, 12:00 Noon.
Howard Johnson – Plaza Hotel
525 West Johnson Street

Lunch will be served. Parking is available in the hotel’s parking facility.

Cost: $25 for members of MCFR and the European Union Center and first-time guests, $40 for other non-members. Reservations and prepayment by Friday, February 4 required.

Reservations and prepayments to MCFR, P.O. Box 1644, Madison, 53701-1644.

Please indicate your full name, e-mail and daytime phone.

The Madison Committee on Foreign Relations, Inc. is a non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to the open discussion of issues facing the United States and other nations. For more information, including membership information go to <http://www.madison.com/communities/mcfr/>.